WASSENAAR. - Art Fix is the world's most accessible online art course. This e-learning platform offers membership-based episodes on the insider stories & secrets of the contemporary art world. Out to demystify the world of contemporary art and make it more accessible through better storytelling, Art Fix is all about formulating your own opinion about art.

Episodes

Every month, a new thematic episode will be released, just 30 minutes in length including interviews and artist deep-dives. The launch episode is called "The City is My Canvas", and will focus on street art, where dark streets and spray cans join forces. Taking on the often illegal domain of street art, this episode will uncover the works of Banksy, JR, Vhils, Stik, and many more. Three more episodes are online: on sculpture (Can I Touch It?), new media (The Virtual as Reality), auction houses (Going Once, Going Twice), and much more to come!

Stories

Each episode is supported by several Stories, which invite you further into the secrets behind the art. Art Fix Stories also include "In Real Life" (IRL), a list packed with the top picks for possible visits to contemporary art exhibitions and tours across the world from Amsterdam to Los Angeles and Dublin to Beijing. And don't worry, the founders will update them seasonally so you won't have to wait long for your next 'Art Fix'.

The Art Fix Story began with a desire to provide a destination for friends of friends and friends of those friends to bring the art world to life and break down the fundamentals in a cool and interesting way, so you will be able to formulate your own opinion on today's artists, galleries, and fairs. Behind every great artwork is a great story. When the founders shared these stories with their friends, a glimmer came to their eyes. The more they heard, the more they began to recognize, follow, and enjoy contemporary art. The website is here to empower you to ask questions, and to democratize the way contemporary art is understood, discussed, and perhaps even owned!

The price of the Art Fix membership is € 17,50 per month (billed annually) and gives you full access.
